

Journalist Visa

Requirements (Checklist)

1. Online Visa application form should be filled, printed, signed and with a valid photo of the applicant properly glued.
2. Journalist Visa for filming of documentaries provided under 'Extra Applications' Form filled, printed and signed and soft copy of the documents sent to cons.oslo@mea.gov.in
3. Guarantee letter from the Norwegian company, introducing the applicant with a mention to his purpose and duration of stay in India.
4. Passport. All Non-Norwegians (i.e. foreign passport holders) should submit the copy of their residence permit. If an applicant holds dual nationality, then he/she should submit preferably both the passports. If not, should at least submit copy of the second passport. (First & last page, visa pages)

The processing time is strictly at the discretion of Embassy.

Journalists on tourism to India should also apply only for Journalist Visa only. The processing time however in this case will be same as any normal tourist visa applications.
